WORLD TRANSCRIPTIONS ORIGINAL SERIES

by

Charles Garrod, Ken Crawford and Dave Kressley

First printing April, 1992

I wish to thank Sam Brylawski and Wynn Matthias of the Library Of Congress for their help in this project. I also want to thank the many others including Lennie Kunstadt and Record Research who have done much research in this area.

This book is about 96% complete. We feel that to hold up the publishing in the hope that we would in time fill some of the blanks would not be fair to those who have waited for so long for this information to be available. We would have liked to have included dates, but since all this work was done without the help of official ducuments, the dates were not available. We hope at a future time to be able to release a World Master Number listing which would include dates.

We hope that anyone having knowledge of the missing titles would contact the publisher, so that a possible second printing would be more complete.
